Asheghaneh Publication, published since 1985, is a bi-monthly magazine with a large circulation. We will connect you with the Persian-American community in Houston and across the country. Asheghaneh Publication is an informative, quality periodical with articles and features of general, literary, artistic and cultural interest, and highlights unique concerns of Persians living in the United States.

The Persian expatriate community enjoys some of the highest standards of income and education of any ethnic group in America. Our readers are a valuable potential market for any advertiser. Asheghaneh Publication offers very competitive, attractive rates on advertising, as demonstrated by the table below.

In our 35 years as a community-oriented publication, service has always been our first concern - service to our advertisers as well as our readers. We welcome the opportunity to assist you in every way possible with your advertising needs.

Asheghaneh Publication can open the door to the growing Persian American community. Asheghaneh has the ability to connect with businesses, products and services in this growing community.
